The Bone Disease Program of Texas is a collaborative research and clinical program of Baylor College of Medicine and the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center.

The mission of the program is to improve basic and translational research of metabolic and metastatic bone diseases, and to convert basic science findings into more effective treatment and prevention options.

The Rolanette and Berdon Lawrence Bone Disease Program of Texas

annual scientific retreat highlights cutting-edge research in metabolic and metastatic bone disease through formal lectures, research, discussions, and poster presentations.

Keynote Address

Sundeep Khosla, MD is the Dr. Francis Chucker and Nathan Landow Research Professor of Medicine and Physiology, Mayo Foundation Distinguished Investigator, and Associate Director for Research at the College of Medicine, Mayo Clinic. Dr. Khosla is internationally recognized for his contributions to our understanding of sex steroid action on bone and changes in bone structure and metabolism with aging.

Dr. Khosla received his A.B. degree from Harvard College and his M.D. from Harvard Medical School. He was subsequently a resident in Internal Medicine and a fellow in Endocrinology at the Massachusetts General Hospital. In 1988 he moved to Mayo Clinic, where his research interests include mechanisms of postmenopausal and age-related bone loss, sex steroid regulation of bone metabolism, and osteoblast/stem cell biology. Dr. Khosla has served as chair of the NIH SBDD Study Section and has been appointed to the Council of the National Institute on Aging from 2007-2010.

Dr. Khosla's honors include the Frederic C. Bartter Award for Clinical Investigation from the American Society for Bone and Mineral Research, the Innovation Award from the National Osteoporosis Foundation, and election to the ASCI and AAP. He has been elected President of the American Society for Bone and Mineral Research for 2010-2011 and will present the Clinical Investigator Award Lecture at the 2010 Endocrine Society meeting. He is also Associate Editor of the Journal of Bone and Mineral Research and has served or is serving as a member of the editorial boards for the Journal of Clinical Investigation, Journal of Bone and Mineral Research, Journal of Clinical Endocrinology and Metabolism, Bone, and Endocrine Reviews.
