

Clinical Cancer Genetics Clinical Referral Guidelines

Gynecologic Oncology Center 2011 Update

Strongly encourage referral:

Patients with any of the following:

- High grade ovarian cancer diagnosed < 50 years (no family history needed)
- Ovarian cancer* AND one or more of the following:
  - Personal history of breast cancer
  - Family history of ovarian* and/or pre-menopausal breast cancer and/or bilateral breast cancer and/or male breast cancer
  - Family history of two or more relatives with breast cancer at any age
  - Ashkenazi Jewish ancestry
- Endometrial cancer, AND one or more of the following:
  - Personal history of colorectal cancer, regardless of age
  - First degree relative with colorectal or endometrial cancer at any age
  - Any family history of colorectal or endometrial cancer diagnosed under age 50
- Family history of a known mutation for a cancer predisposition syndrome

Consider referral:

Patients with any of the following:

- No personal history of cancer, but a family member who meets any of the above (Strongly encourage referral) criteria
- Any high grade ovarian cancer
- Endometrial cancer diagnosed <50 years
- Personal or family history of follicular thyroid cancer, breast cancer, and/or dermatologic manifestations of Cowden syndrome

*Peritoneal and fallopian tube cancers should be considered as part of the spectrum of the Hereditary Breast and Ovarian Cancer Syndrome.