Faces Behind Breast Cancer

To show her appreciation for the care she received at M. D. Anderson and to support cancer research and patient care programs, Josie Sethi launched "The Faces Behind Breast Cancer." The black-and-white pictorial features photographs and reflections of 79 male and female breast cancer patients, and M. D. Anderson faculty and staff, all photographed by Jack Opatrany.

Sethi, who has enjoyed a career as a writer, talk show producer and radio host, will donate proceeds from sales of the book to M. D. Anderson. "What I thought was going to be my own personal journey with cancer — a kind of photographic essay — turned out to be so much more," Sethi says. "I pray the book finds its way into the hearts and hands of the people who will benefit the most."

Marvin's Fund

Marvin Zindler — pictured in 1996 at a 75th birthday celebration/cancer research benefit with singer-songwriter Lyle Lovett (left), gala chair Carolyn Farb and Charles LeMaistre, M.D. — spent 35 years of his life championing causes as consumer advocate for ABC Houston affiliate KTRK-TV Channel 13. Today, Zindler's legacy continues to help others through the Marvin H. Zindler Sr. Fund for Pancreatic Cancer Research at M. D. Anderson. His family established the fund shortly after he succumbed to the disease in July 2007. By mid-November, the fund totaled more than $46,000 and almost 700 gifts.

A Belief in Giving Back

Board of Visitors Senior Member F. O'Neil Griffin's $3 million gift to the South Campus Research Initiative enabled M. D. Anderson to reach its fundraising goal of $135 million. The total represents a $1 million personal contribution from Griffin as well as a $2 million pledge from the Neil and Elaine Griffin Foundation, which he directs.

Griffin is chair of Griffin Investments. "Having spent a lot of my career in Houston, I've always known the importance of M. D. Anderson," he says. "I've been blessed beyond any dream or imagination I could have ever had. I really believe in giving back."

A Steer of a Sale

Top buyers Bill and Judy Meridith (left) of Wellington, Kan., pause with Mike Bowman of Benton, Kan., at the Texas Legacy Longhorn Sale to corral funds for cancer research programs. The unique fundraiser, held at the Gaylord Texan Resort in Grapevine, Texas, sold more than 100 lots of longhorn cattle and raised more than $2 million for cancer research at M. D. Anderson and Pennsylvania State University. M. D. Anderson Board of Visitors member Red McCombs was one of several longhorn breeders who launched the event in the 1980s to promote the breed. In the last three years, the Texas Legacy Longhorn Sale has raised more than $6.4 million.

Funds for Breast Cancer

Mien-Chie Hung, Ph.D. (center), chair of M. D. Anderson's Department of Molecular and Cellular Oncology and director of the Breast Cancer Basic Research Program, gives National Breast Cancer Foundation, Inc.® founder Janelle Hail a tour of his laboratory. In 2007, the foundation contributed more than $208,000 to Hung's research, bringing its total M. D. Anderson contributions to more than $668,000 since 2001.

The foundation's educational outreach is expanding through "My NBCF," an online community at www.nationalbreastcancer.org, and "Beyond the Shock/A Step-by-Step Guide to the Diagnosis of Breast Cancer," a physician-written, interactive DVD designed to help patients answer difficult questions during diagnosis and treatment. Hung distributed 400 copies of the DVD at the Taipei International Breast Cancer Symposium in September 2006.

Welcoming Reception

A Surprise Gift

M. D. Anderson Board of Visitors member Patsy Fourticq and husband, Greg, received a holiday surprise in December 2006. In honor of their 50th wedding anniversary, their son, Gregory Fourticq Jr. (left), established the Norman Jaffe Professorship in Pediatrics at the Children's Cancer Hospital at M. D. Anderson.

After the announcement at a dinner at the home of Anne and John Mendelsohn, M.D., president of M. D. Anderson, Gregory surprised his parents with more news. Arrangements already had been made to celebrate with 200 philanthropic individuals the next evening at the Fourticq's home. The inaugural "Santa's Elves" event raised more than $20,000 for patients at the Children's Cancer Hospital.
