

Explore our CATALYST Programs by educational level and focus area. Use this table to identify opportunities that match your academic status and interests.

		Eligibility
CATALYST Programs	Focus Area	High School (18 years old by June 1st)	Undergraduate	Graduate	Medical School
Center for Clinical Ethics in Oncology	Clinical, research, and academic ethics		✓	✓
CPRIT-CURE Cancer Prevention & Research Institute of Texas Summer Undergraduate Research Training Program	Hands- on research with interest in academic and/or professional career in cancer research		✓
CP RTP Cancer Prevention Research Training Program	Cancer prevention research		✓	✓	✓
DACCPM Division of Anesthesiology, Critical Care & Pain Medicine	Basic and clinical research	✓	✓		✓
DISCOVER Driving Innovation in Science through Opportunities for Veterinary Engagement in Research	Pre-veterinary and/or vet medical students only		✓		✓
Emerging Surgical Leaders Summer Program	Nomination for UTHealth Houston McGovern Students				✓
High School Program The Carl B. & Florence E. King Foundation for the High School Student Summer Program in Biomedical Sciences	Interest in Allied Health career and learning the research process	✓
IDEAS Innovation, product Development, and Entrepreneurship Education are Accelerated for the purpose of transforming Surgical care	Engineering students interested in hands on learning and practice of early stage medical device product development.		✓	✓
ITERT Interdisciplinary Translational Education and Research Training Core	Biomedical oncology and translational molecular pathology research		✓
Neuro-Oncology Clinical Research Summer Program	Houston area students interested in clinical research		✓
PSI Pathway in Systems Imaging Summer Research Program	Cancer systems imaging research		✓	✓
PCCSM Partnership for Careers in Cancer Science and Medicine	Nomination only- see webpage for details	✓	✓		✓

Explore our CATALYST Programs by educational level and focus area. Use this table to identify opportunities that match your academic status and interests.

CATALYST Programs	Focus Area	Eligibility
		High School (18 years old by June 1st)	Undergraduate	Graduate	Medical School
RADAR Radiation Oncology Advanced Development and Applied Research for Medical Students	Radiation oncology research				✓
SIRP Summer Imaging Research Program	Imaging clinical research		✓		✓
SOAR Medical Students Summer in Oncology at Anderson Research	Hands-on oncology research and clinical oncology				✓
NCI R25 SPCR Summer Program in Cancer Research	Lab-based cancer research		✓
STRONGER Supporting Tobacco-Related ONGOing Education and Research Scholar Program	Translational tobacco-related research				✓
TDD Platforms Therapeutics Discovery & Development	Biotechnology and drug discovery research		✓
U54 U54 Partnership for Excellence in Cancer Research with the University of Puerto Rico (UPR) System	University of Puerto Rico students only		✓	✓	✓
UPWARDS Undergraduates Working Towards Research in Science Training Program	Hands-on lab research for students with limited access to scientific training or resources	✓	✓
University Outreach	Nomination only- see webpage for details		✓		