Remember these tips:

- Limit red meat and processed meat.
- Eat 2½ cups of non-starchy vegetables and fruits each day.
- Choose plant-based protein as often as possible.

The American Institute for Cancer Research developed the New American Plate to help you manage your weight and lower your risk for chronic diseases, including cancer.