Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) Testing: your pre-visit appointment

For your safety and to reduce the spread of infection, MD Anderson is testing patients for COVID-19 prior to scheduled visits, even if they do not have respiratory symptoms or fever. Scheduled visits include new patient registration visits; scheduled procedures requiring general anesthesia and some procedures performed in a clinical setting outside of an operating room; and scheduled treatments such as radiation therapy.

You will have an appointment scheduled by your provider at one of our COVID-19 testing sites prior to your scheduled visit. If you previously tested negative for COVID-19 at a non-MD Anderson facility, you will still need to be re-tested prior to your visit. COVID-19 testing at MD Anderson is by appointment only and reserved for MD Anderson patients as directed by their care providers.

What you need to know before your appointment at an MD Anderson testing site

To reduce the possible spread of infection, please do not bring a visitor with you inside the testing facility. Your visitor may wait in the car. Appointments can be scheduled at one of several testing sites, based on your scheduled visit type and personal preference.
