

UT System Title IX-Related Open Training Sessions September & October 2020

UT System is hosting Title IX-Related Open Training Sessions for September and October 2020; the topics are listed below. These open training sessions are available to anyone systemwide (free for attendees), and we welcome and encourage anyone in Title IX-related roles to join us for these topic areas.

Trainings on Case Management & Investigations, Hearing Officer Role, and Appeals Officer Role will cover provisions required by the new Title IX Regulations and the training materials must be made available for publishing on the institution's websites in accordance with the publishing requirements of the regulations.<sup>1</sup> We will also cover UT System-specific guidance for implementation and explore possible issues with each of these roles and steps in the Title IX/Sexual Harassment formal grievance process.

If you are interested in attending any sessions, please register for the session(s) using the Zoom registration links (below), or through the UT System Training Registration Form. All training sessions are based on Central time. Attendees will receive the training materials after attending the specific training session. Attendees can register for and attend the same topics multiple times, as desired; please complete additional UT System Training Registration Forms, when applicable.
