

Postdoctoral Fellowships in Cancer Prevention Research

Application deadline: Feb. 17, 2020

- No citizenship requirements/restrictions
- Doctoral students must earn their degree within 5 months of application deadline
- Open to candidates with backgrounds in biomedical sciences, biostatistics, bioinformatics, epidemiology, behavioral sciences, social sciences, population and public health, and other disciplines relevant to cancer prevention
- All applicants will be considered for both fellowships

1) CPRIT POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN CANCER PREVENTION

- Funded by an award from the Cancer Prevention & Research Institute of Texas (CPRIT), RP 170259, Drs. Shine Chang and Sanjay Shete, Principal Investigators
- Training in cancer prevention & quantitative methods
- Up to 2 years support for salary at $51,000/year
- Allowance for research/professional development expenses
- At least one mentor must have a faculty appointment at MD Anderson in DCPPS
- Preference will be given to applicants with a mentor from one of our partnering institutions:

excluding UTSPH

2) MD ANDERSON POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN CANCER PREVENTION

- Funded by MD Anderson Cancer Center
- At least one mentor must have a faculty appointment at MD Anderson
- Up to 2 years salary support at $51,000/year

Application instructions & forms are available on our website at:
www.CancerPreventionTraining.org